Parent Guide for "Abba Father" Coloring Set

Dad no earthly father is perfect... every child ever born needs a relationship with his father in heaven. He/she also needs a relationship with you. It wouldn't hurt you to color one of our pages with each of your children. When you are done coloring do something outside like making a tire garden. (See the parent pages at www.homewordnow.com.)

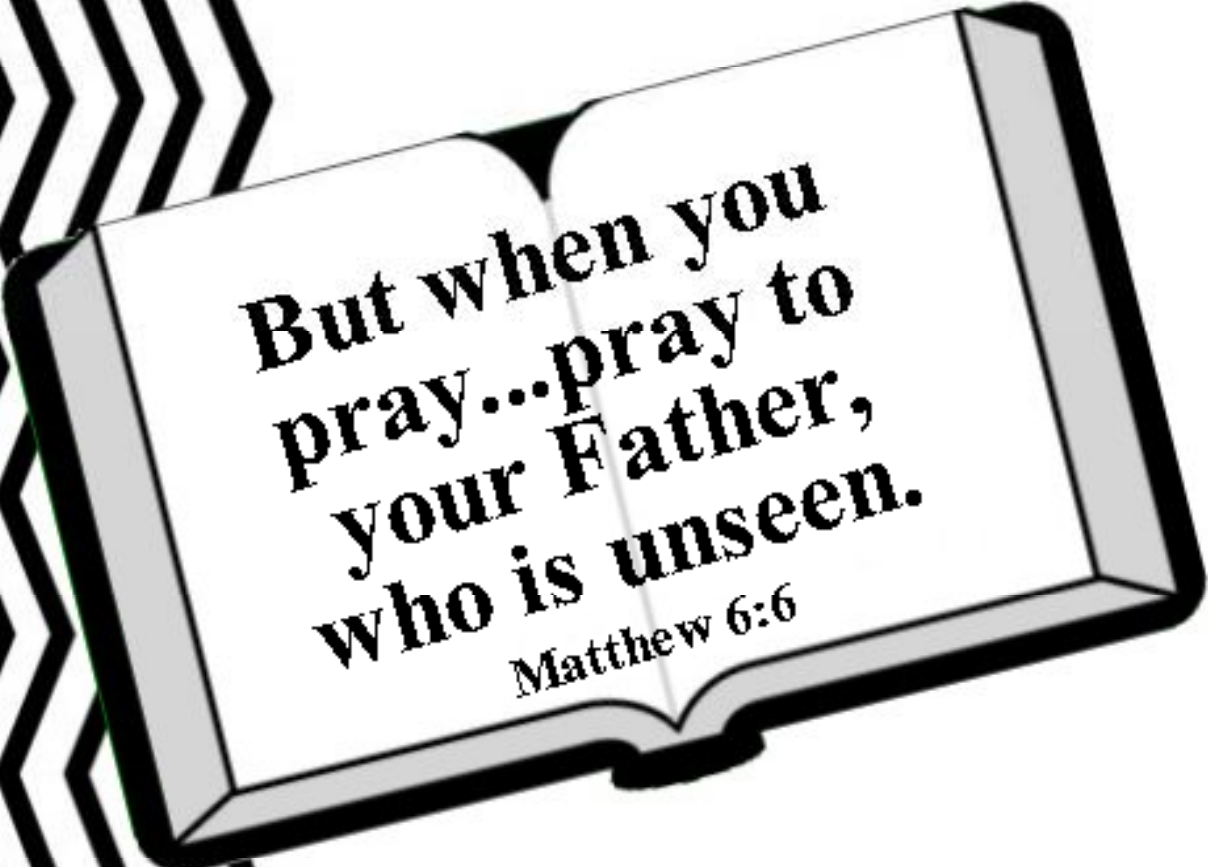

For the next few weeks we will be sending home a coloring page focusing on Abba Father. We hope you will color them with your child and put them on display in your home. We hope too that if you know a family who has been touched by divorce you will share some of our "Abba Father" coloring pages and the address of our divorce website, www.childrenafterdivorce.com. It is filled with ways an absent father or step father can relate to his children as well as ways a mother can encourage her children know that having your parents divorced does not put you at the bottom of God's list...it puts you at the top. The very greatest men in the Old Testament all had family trouble, Moses was in a custody battle for 40 years, Joseph's whole family was angry at each other, Samuel lost both his mother and father at age ~4, Daniel grew up surrounded by strangers with ONLY God to make him feel loved and safe.

If you need more coloring pages ask your Sunday School teacher or visit the Project Homeword website: www.homewordnow.com.
